

Cert III in Hospitality

This qualification provides a pathway to work in organisations such as restaurants, hotels, motels, clubs, pubs, cafés, and coffee shops. The course is designed to prepare you to work effectively and safely in hospitality service, provide customer service and coach others in job skills. The Food Services (Front of House) stream will develop your skills in preparing and presenting simple dishes, preparing and serving non-alcoholic beverages and safely handling food.

You will gain experience on the YWAM Townsville Campus which provides daily meals and hosts regular events, as well as providing food services for the YWAM Ships operations both in Australia and Papua New Guinea.
